ORDER

On this date, came on to be considered the Government's Motion to Dismiss the Motion to Revoke Supervised Release, filed in the above entitled and numbered cause, and the Court, having considered the same, is of the opinion that the Motion to Dismiss the Motion to Revoke Supervised Release should be granted.

THE COURT FINDS that the Court is deeply concerned about the past conduct of Brenda Mattox, during her term on supervised released under the supervision of the United States Probation Office.

THE COURT FINDS that Brenda Mattox must continue to be on supervised release.

THE COURT FINDS that Brenda Mattox must continue to comply with the terms and conditions of supervised release which have been and are imposed by this Court and must comply with the instructions provided, by any Officer of the United States Probation Office, to Brenda Mattox, while under this supervision.

THE COURT ORDERS that Brenda Mattox must continue to be on supervised release.

THE COURT ORDERS that Brenda Mattox must continue to comply with the terms and conditions of supervised release which have been and are imposed by this Court and must comply with the instructions provided, by any Officer of the United States Probation Office, to Brenda Mattox, while under this supervision.

THE COURT ORDERS that, when requested by any United States Probation Officer, Brenda Mattox must immediately provide any and all medical records to the United States Probation Officer, while under this supervision.

IT IS ORDERED that the Government's Motion to Revoke Supervised Release, filed in the above entitled and numbered cause, is hereby DISMISSED.

SIGNED and ENTERED this the 21 day of August 2012.
